

OMAR SHARIF

KEYNOTE SPEAKER · LONDON · WORLDWIDE

From the streets of London to the world's biggest stages.

Omar Sharif is a Pride of Britain Award winner and a recognised voice on change, resilience and high performance. Once homeless at eighteen, he now helps organisations like Accenture, LinkedIn and National Grid get their people through change and performing at their best.

WHY OMAR

A speaker who has lived the change he's asking your people to make.

- ✓ Lived proof, not theory. Gangs, a stabbing, six months homeless and a childhood stutter, then a career on stage. Audiences believe change is possible because he's the evidence.
- ✓ Practical, not just motivational. Every talk leaves people with tools they use the next day, and every attendee gets a free copy of his Reinvention Handbook.
- ✓ Built for your event. Every booking starts with a call with Omar himself, so the talk fits your people and goals.

KEYNOTES

01 The Leadership Edge

Identity, communication and the habits behind high performance.
Interactive and practical: people leave with something to do on Monday.
Leadership teams · offsites · senior and emerging leaders

02 Navigating Through Change

Help people stop spending energy on what they can't control, and put it where it changes something.
Restructures · transformation · mergers · a new strategy

03 From the Streets to Success

The full story, told properly, and what it asks of everyone listening. The one people retell at the next event.

WHAT ORGANISERS SAY

"He made a personal connection with everyone, leading to the best feedback we have received for a keynote speaker."

Phillip Roberts, Senior Safety Leader, National Grid

"You want a speaker who is professional, easy to work with and, most importantly, delivers when they step on stage. Omar did all three."

Ben Davis, CEO, Fitness Marketing Agency

"He took the time in advance to really understand our business, our audience, and the intention behind our session."

Laura James, Talent Development Manager, Enterprise Mobility

"Two very powerful speeches at YouTube HQ and Clarence House, both with HM King Charles present."

Ronan Harris, VP and MD, UK and Ireland, Google
